PLEASE READ CAREFULLY BEFORE COMPLETING THE ENCLOSED FORM

It is the responsibility of judges who were not passed to award their first set of C.Cs. prior to 1st July 1998 to complete all the mandatory requirements of The Kennel Club (assessments of show regulations, ring procedure & practical aspects of judging, anatomy, conformation & movement, breed points plus stewarding experience) and to advise the Labrador Breed Council without delay so that their questionnaires may be updated accordingly. The Kennel Club will not consider granting permission to award CCs. until the mandatory requirements have been satisfactorily completed. All judges should make themselves familiar with the K.C.Working Party on Judges report.

This new style questionnaire form for judges who wish to be included in one of the Labrador Breed Council's List of Judges has been produced to keep in line with the current requirements of the Kennel Club. Whilst not every question can be answered by judges applying for a lower List, all will become appropriate when a judge becomes eligible to be considered by The Kennel Club for inclusion in the new A2 List. If any questions cannot be answered at this time the spaces are to be left blank and may be completed later, Thus the Labrador Breed Council will in future need to hold only one form for each judge.

The Kennel Club has directed that all judges on the present A2 List are to be automatically transferred to the new A3 List on 1st January 1999 but before doing this the Breed Council will require every judge, other than those already on the A1 Lists, to complete and return one of the new style forms. In the future it will only be necessary to update the form so saving unnecessary paperwork.

As it was not mandatory for absentees to be recorded at shows prior to 1st January 1995, It is therefore not essential to record the number of Labradors actually judged at shows before this date. However, if records have been kept, they should be included

When supplying information on non-Labrador appointments only the number of classes of Breed or Variety actually judged at each show is required and not the names and details of each individual breed nor the numbers of dogs entered or actually judged. Computer print-outs or presentations which are not in the form required by the Breed Council are no longer acceptable.

It is in the interests of all judges to notify the Secretary of the Labrador Breed Council of any changes, such as addresses, telephone numbers or inaccuracies which may have occurred, so that subsequent lists can be amended, Judging Lists cannot be altered during their lifetime.

It is essential for judges at all levels to agree to submit reports on all judgings for publication in the canine press and such reports will be in the format required by the same.

Before returning the questionnaire a good quality photocopy should be made as future additions and amendments may be submitted on this.

As the criteria for the Judging lists is now common for all the Labrador Breed Clubs
ONLY ONE QUESTIONNAIRE should be completed and returned.
